If you do not wish your image to be captured in this way, please sit in another area of the church. if you have concerns , please contact us.

A PRAYER AFTER EASTER

by Erin M. Cline

O God of the Last Supper, God of the Cross
And God of the Empty Tomb
We come before you now and we pause.
We inhale the scent of snow white Easter lilies.
We see the rain as it falls in veils and sheets of April showers.
And we listen. Holy Week has passed.
But how we long to live by the marvellous story we have heard.
Let us remain ever beside you at the table of the Last Supper.
Show us who is hungry. And give us the courage to offer them bread from your table.
Show us who is thirsty. And give us the strength to lift up the cup of your love.
Most of all, show us how to linger at the table, serving others
Doing all that we do in remembrance of You,
And the way You were when You walked this earth.
We lift these simpl words up to you, O God. Amen

5th of April 2026 — EASTER SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S RESURRECTION

St Paul's Parish is in St. Otteran's Pastoral Area with the parishes of Ballybricken, Holy Family, St. Saviour's, Butlerstown, Dunhill & Fenor, Tramore & Carbally.

EASTER MESSAGE

We greet Spring and Easter this year with particular welcome and relief, after a long, wet winter under constantly darkened skies. Our days were also dulled in a more ominous way by wars and rumours of war. We have said goodbye to many loved ones, some in the prime of life, some after years of love and service.

So, we welcome the season of Resurrection, when the brightness of heaven shines upon us. The Lord is truly risen!

May a fresh wind from the Risen One, fill our 'sails' and our souls this Easter. May this Eastertime and this Season of New Life renew us in body, mind and spirit.

We wish you a Happy Easter as we thank you for all that you do for your family and our Parish community.

*Sr. de Lourdes, Fr. Dawit, Fr. Pat
& All the members of our Parish Pastoral Councils.*

Just as mid-winter is the ideal time to celebrate the coming of Christ, the Light of the World, into our darkness, so Easter is celebrated at the height of spring when nature conspires to teach us the message of the feast.

CHRIST IS RISEN

The editor of a leading religious newspaper was walking along some cliffs one Easter morning. On his walk he met an old fisherman, and during their conversation together, the editor was struck by the simple faith of the old fisherman in his risen Saviour.

'How do you know that Christ is risen?' he asked. 'Sir,' came the reply, do you see those cottages near the cliffs? Well, Sir, sometimes when I am far out at sea I know that the sun is risen by the light that is reflected by yon cottage windows. How do I know that Christ is risen? Why, Sir, do I not see the light reflected from the face of some of my companions every day, and do I not feel the light of his glory in my own life? You may as soon tell me that the sun is not risen when I see its reflected glory, as tell me that my Lord is not risen.'

This story echoes the memorable statement of the great second century theologian, Clement of Alexandria, on the significance of Christ's resurrection: 'Christ has turned all our sunsets into dawn'.

Pope Francis encouraged us to welcome the Risen Christ into our lives as a friend, with trust and confidence: 'If up till now you have kept him at a distance, step forward. He will receive you with open arms. If you have been indifferent, take a risk. You won't be disappointed. If following him seems difficult, don't be afraid, trust him, be confident that he is close to you, he is with you and he will give you the peace you are looking for, and the strength to live as he would have you do.'

Michael McCabe SMA

Be with us Lord, as we continue our pilgrim journey as an Easter people. Guide our footsteps with the light of Easter faith, that we may walk in your ways. Bless our family. Grant us health in mind and body. Be with us always. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who has risen from the dead. ALLELUIA. AMEN.
