Rich in whose sight?

You can look around a lot and the gospel today makes sense. It points at how we can get caught up in what we own and what people have. It's about possessions and how they take us over- or how we react when we lack what we once had. We enjoy wealth but we have a mixed reaction to it.

Saint Ignatius mentioned three obstacles to our faith - wealth, honour, pride. He saw from his own experience that people wanted wealth so that they would be highly thought of

- the right address,
- the right bank.

We have pride in what we have, but as we know, things can change very quickly. Shares go down; you may become ill or die.

The battle is between being rich in the sight of the world and being rich in the sight of God.

The opposites of these obstacles are simplicity, integrity, and humility. Humility is pride in who we are - children of God, brothers and sisters to each other, and accepting ourselves just as we are. We need nothing outside of ourselves to make us feel good about ourselves. This too is simplicity.

THOUGHTS ON THE GOSPEL

The rich man in this Gospel has a 'me, me, me' complex. He does not come across as wicked or evil but as selfish, greedy, preoccupied with himself to the exclusion of others. Lord, do I get caught in the unholy trinity of 'Me, Myself and I?'

One could argue that the rich man is not foolish because he makes provision for the future. But his own future is his only concern, not that of others. He does not think to use his abundance to help others.

Lord, make me a grateful person, aware that all that is good in my life comes from you, and is held in trust, for others.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPEL LUKE 12:13-21

'One's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions', said Jesus.

What have you found by experience to be more important in life than possessions? What brought this home to you?

'Be on your guard against all kinds of greed'. Perhaps you have seen how greed can lead to trouble in public life, in family life, and in the personal life of individuals. What has helped you to guard against greed? What benefits have you experienced when you were less greedy?

The message of the parable could be summed up in saying 'If you want to give God a laugh, tell him your plans'. Life takes many twists and turns we do not anticipate. When have you found that you had to change your plans because of unexpected circumstances? What has helped you to be flexible and resourceful at such times?

In our Western society, we are driven to acquire more wealth, more possessions, more status.

Today, Jesus reminds us that, when we leave all this behind, we will be asked what spiritual riches we have accumulated.

Our good deeds are the only thing that will outlive us. What treasure will I accumulate that I can carry with me to the afterlife?
