LIVE STREAMING Mass and other services (including weddings and funeral masses) are live streamed from our churches on <https://www.mcnmedia.tv/camera/st-paul-s> and <https://mcnmedia.tv/camera/butlerstown> and www.stpaulschurch.ie. so that the parish can extend its reach to those who cannot visit the church. This may mean that your image will be broadcast on those web-sites, in particular, if you are on or near the sanctuary or sit in the first three rows of the middle aisle. If you do not wish your image to be captured in this way, please sit in another area of the church. If you have concerns, please contact us.

Honour the wisdom
of those who went before you.

Bind it ever to your heart.

Tie it around your neck.

When you walk, it will lead you,

When you lie down, it will watch over you,

When you wake it, it will talk to you!

A KING WHOSE WEALTH LIES IN HIS LOVE FOR ALL (Luke 23:35-43)

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. In this Liturgical Year C we have been reading the gospel of Luke over many Sundays and have been privileged to see how the great mystery of God's universal love and mercy is revealed in the person of Jesus. It is appropriate then on this feast to focus on Jesus on the cross granting pardon to the repentant thief. For Luke this aspect of the kingdom of God has been central: Jesus has come to bring the healing forgiveness of God to all who seek it.

'If you are the king of the Jews then save yourself.' This cry of mockery from the crowds on Calvary is worthy of our reflection on a feast such as today's. It is precisely because he is the king of the Jews, and indeed king of the whole world, that Jesus does not save himself. He is more concerned to save others. This he does, not by the majestic use of power or a dramatic manifestation of his glory, but rather through a humble giving of himself in which the mercy of God is offered to everyone in an act of overwhelming generosity.

Today we celebrate a king whose wealth lies in his love for all, and whose authority is exercised through service of those who are considered the least important of all. Jesus does not seek servants who grovel before his throne in the hope of being granted favours, he is looking for disciples who can stand before the cross and see there their own worth and the worth of every other human being, and who will be prepared to do what they can to uphold the dignity of their brothers and sisters.

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of peace and justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at-risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Archbishop Justin Welby
Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

Christ our King, help us to be like you, to listen to your truth and to see that all people are important, no matter who they are or where they come from. Amen.

FOUND

A glasses case containing an old pair of glasses and a note about the 26 January 1956 has been handed into St. Paul's Parish Office. If you have lost this please contact the Parish Office.

EVERYTHING I NEED TO KNOW ABOUT LIFE I LEARNED FROM NOAH'S ARK

Don't Miss the Boat.

Remember we are all in the same boat. Plan ahead, it wasn't raining when Noah built his Ark.

Stay fit, when you are 95 years old someone may ask you to do something really big.

Don't listen to critics, just get on with the job that needs to be done.

Build your future on high ground.

For safety sake travel in pairs.

Speed isn't always an advantage, the snails were on board with the Cheetahs.

When you are stressed float awhile.

No matter the storm, when you are with God, there's always a rainbow waiting.

POPE JOHN PAUL I, SMALL THINGS AND SILENCE, VERITAS 2022

A Spanish writer has written:

'the world is going wrong because there are more battles than prayers.'

Let us try to see that there may be more prayers and fewer battles.
