A reflection based on Colossians 1: 17b-20

St Paul wrote with great conviction:

"In Christ Jesus all things hold together."

So when I feel as though things are falling apart because of the rawness of grief

or I feel guilty

because I didn't remember them today.

Or I wonder: what will happen to all these precious memories when I forget?

I can trust that in Jesus all things hold together.

And I can trust that the love of God,

which has overcome all things,

will hold us together again.

ALL THE HOLY SOULS

May they Rest in Peace

*THEY are not gone - These loved ones whom we mourn.
We must not think of them
as far away.
Unto a fuller life have They have been born,
Laying aside the vesture of this clay.
Yet near us still, they watch
and love and know;
We are the blind ones who
no longer see
Beloved forms that softly
come and go.
Waiting reunion in eternity.*

In the blueness of the sky
and in the warmth of the summer,
we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves
and in the beauty of the autumn,
we remember them.

In the beginning of the year
and when it ends,
we remember them.

When we are lost
and sick at heart,
we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live,
for they are part of us, and we remember them .

A PRAYER OF REMEMBRANCE

God, thank you for the special people in our lives whom we are remembering in a special way during the month of November. We thank you for being a compassionate God who walks with us in the our dark moments of grief and loneliness. We are thankful for all who continue to love and support us through our grief.

Lord, continue to be a light for us, giving us hope, direction and courage. May we now live our lives treasuring the memories of those special people we have known and loved and help us to bring light and hope to others. Amen.
