This may mean that your image will be broadcast on those websites, in particular, if you are on or near the sanctuary or sit in the first three rows of the middle aisle. If you do not wish your image to be captured in this way, please sit in another area of the church. If you have concerns, please contact us.

Lord God,
whose days are without end
and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth
in the ways of holiness and justice, that we may serve you in union with the whole Church,
sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly journey is ended,
lead us rejoicing into your kingdom,
where you live forever and ever. AMEN

May they Rest in Peace

In November we gather to pray for our sisters and brothers who have gone before us.

They have ended their service on earth and passed to new life in company with Christ.

*We pray that God
may welcome them and shine His face upon them with all the saints of heaven.*

5th of November 2023 - THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Love Thy Neighbour (Matthew 23:1-12)

‘Practise what you preach’. ‘Walk it as you talk it’. These are sayings we use to highlight that words and actions in our Christian life should harmonise.

‘Love is shown in deeds, not words’ is the ending of the Ignatius’ Spiritual Exercises, a compilation of meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices developed by St. Ignatius Loyola to help people deepen their relationship with God.

This is the criticism of Jesus about some of the Pharisees: they preached intolerable burdens of the law, and did not observe it themselves, nor help anyone to do so.

We find out how to be a follower of Jesus by watching him in the gospel, by hearing his word, and by living a life of love and compassion as best we can. We learn from him how to relate to others by how he does this himself.

Donal Neary SJ

*Lord, Teach us, your children,
to be caring of one another,
To protect one another,
as you gather us in your care.
Help us to know peace that steals gently in through quiet acts of kindness.*

PRAYER FOR PRISONERS' SUNDAY
• 5 NOVEMBER

Lord, you offer freedom to all people.

We pray for those in prison.

Break the bonds of fear and isolation that exist.

Support with your love prisoners and their families and friends, prison staff and all who care.

Heal those who have been wounded by the actions of others, especially the victims of crime.

Help us to forgive one another, to act justly, love with mercy and walk humbly together with Christ in his strength and in his Spirit, now and every day. Amen.

Honour the wisdom of those who went before you.

Bind it ever to your heart

Tie it around your neck.

*When you walk, it will lead you,
When you lie down, it will watch over you,
When you wake it, it will talk to you!*

(Proverbs 6:20-22)
