This may mean that your image will be broadcast on those websites, in particular, if you are on or near the sanctuary or sit in the first three rows of the middle aisle. If you do not wish your image to be captured in this way, please sit in another area of the church.
If you have concerns , please contact us.

Father, I offer you this day.
I ask for light to see the right path.
I ask for freedom from worry, fear or guilt.
I ask for wisdom and insight into how our world needs renewal.
I ask for forgiveness when necessary and for people to help me along the way.
May I know that your love me and walk the path with me. Amen.

Lord give us the grace to trust that beyond death
there is a life
where broken things are fixed,
lost things are found,
where the weary find rest
and where we will all meet again.

Parishes of St. Paul's & Butlerstown

3rd of NOVEMBER 2024 - THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

St Paul's Parish is in St. Otteran's Pastoral Area with the parishes of Ballybricken, Holy Family, St. Saviour's, Butlerstown, Dunhill & Fenor, Tramore & Carbally.'

'Come to me... and I will give you rest'

In all our lives we carry many burdens. Sometimes we carry them in such a way that they help us grow, at other times we allow them to eat away at us, making them very heavy indeed. Jesus is not saying that we will not have burdens to carry. But he tells us to find rest in him. Jesus offers refreshment and peace. Even when those we love pass into eternal life, we are consoled in knowing that they are at peace and that we will be united with them again.

We perform many ceremonies in remembering our dead, especially in the month of November. We might light a candle, say a prayer, visit a church or grave, look at old photographs. We can be thankful for the many ways in which our loved ones shaped us, cared for us, and who are with us as we continue to journey through life.

We are who we are today and we are where we are today, because of those whose lives have touched ours and who have let our lives touch theirs. God, in the magnificence of things, does not intend us to be neutral when we lose those who have loved us. So, our grief has to be tinged with gratitude for lives which have shaped us, for hands that have held us, for voices that have inspired us, for eyes which have beheld us, for ears that have listened to us.

Jane Mellett

Lord, support us all the day long,
Until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes,
And the busy world is hushed,
And the fever of life is over,
And our work is done.
Then in your mercy,
Grant us a safe lodging,
And a holy rest,
And peace at the last.

REMEMBERING OUR LOVED ONE S

Though we need to weep your loss
You dwell in the safe places in our hearts
Where no storm or night or pain can reach you.

Your love was like the dawn
Brightening over our lives,
Awakening beneath the dark.
Your spirit here was alive,
awake, complete.

Let us not look only for you in memory
Where we grow lonely without you.
You would want us to find you in presence
Beside us when beauty brightens,
When kindness glows.
When darkest Winter
has turned to Spring.
May our grief flower with hope
In every heart that loves you.
May you continue to inspire us
To enter each day with a generous heart,
To serve the call of courage and love
Until we see your face again
In the land where there is no more separation,
And where we will never lose you again .

EVERY DAY

Every day I need you Lord, but this day especially, I need some extra strength, to face whatever is to be.
This day more than any day,
I need to feel you near,
to fortify my courage
and to overcome my fear.
By myself, I cannot meet the challenge of the hour.
There are times when humans help,
but we need a higher power to assist us bear what must be borne, and so dear Lord, I pray - Hold on to my trembling hand and be near me today.
