LIVE STREAMING

Mass and other services (including weddings and funeral masses) are live streamed from our churches on <https://www.mcn.live/Camera/st-paul-s> and <https://www.mcn.live/Camera/butlerstown> and www.stpaulsandbutlerstown.ie. so that the parish can extend its reach to those who cannot visit the church . This may mean that your image will be broadcast on those websites, in particular, if you are on or near the sanctuary or sit in the first three rows of the middle aisle. If you do not wish your image to be captured in this way, please sit in another area of the church. If you have concerns , please contact us.

PERHAPS

Perhaps is we could see
The splendour of the land
To which our loved ones are called
from you and me.
We'd understand.

Perhaps if we could hear
The welcome they receive
From old familiar voices - all so dear.
We would not grieve.

Perhaps if we could know
The reasons why then went
We'd smile, and wipe away the tears that flow
We'd wait content.

May they Rest in Peace

Our prayer for you:

May the grace of Christ
uphold you,
and the Father's love
enfold you,
may the Holy Spirit
guide you,
and all the joy and peace
betide you,
now and to eternity
Amen

Parishes of St. Paul's & Butlerstown

9th of November 2025 - THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERN BASILICA

St Paul's Parish is in St. Otteran's Pastoral Area with the parishes of Ballybricken, Holy Family, St. Saviour's, Butlerstown, Dunhill & Fenor, Tramore & Carbally.

When a loved one leaves...

When a loved one leaves us,
our family doesn't disappear,
it is transformed.
A part of it enters the invisible.
We can believe that death is an absence,
while it is a secret presence.
We can believe that it creates an infinite
distance,
while it eliminates all distance
by bringing to the spirit what was in the flesh.
The more loved ones that have left home,
the more heavenly ties for those left behind.
Heaven is no longer populated only with angels,
unknown saints,
it is becoming familiar.
It is part of our family home,
and its upper level, one could say,
and, from top to bottom, memories, help,
and prayers are answered to each other.

Fr Antonin Sertillanges OP

Prayer of Cardinal Newman

*May the Lord support us all the day long, Till the shadows lengthen and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over,
and our work is done.
Then in his mercy may he give us a safe lodging,
and holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.*

REMEMBERING OUR LOVED ONES

Our thanks and memories can teach us much about life, for everyone we know has been
and is a gift of God to us.

They also bring God to us – they are a link
and we remember that especially this month,
between heaven and earth, and the love they showed us and we shared with them on earth
is the love they have brought to God.
With each of them we are a little nearer God.
In the morning of the day we ask their help
and in the evening we give thanks for what they have given of themselves to us, for it is in their gift of love that they live on.
Donal Neary SJ

REMEMBERING

O Lord of life and hope,
I remember with love (Name).
Thank You for the gift of them in my life.
I have been truly blessed by their presence,
their words and actions, and their love.
The pain of their loss is a reminder of the depth
of the bond we shared.
Give me the strength and courage to leave them
in your care.
Help me, O God, to realize that the distance between us now is not so great
and that one day, I will be reunited with them
in heaven, sharing in Your promise of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRAYER WHEN LIGHTING A CANDLE FOR THE DECEASED

As I light this candle, I remember those who I have loved and who have died.
I remember especially (Name...).

Jesus you said, I am the light of the world.
May your light shine on (Name.....)
and all those who have died.
May they be bathed always in the light
of your love and grace,
and come to eternal life with you. Amen.
